Pick-up and Dropping Point: Manali

Day Itinerary (Manali Local to Rohtang – Atal Tunnel – Solang Valley – Koksar Round Trip)

Morning Departure:
Early morning, pick up from your hotel in Manali around 8:00 AM and start your full-day sightseeing tour towards Rohtang Valley via Kothi, Gulaba, Rahla Waterfall, Marhi, and Vyas Nala.

Kothi Village:
Kothi is a charming village located about 12 km from Manali, famous for its stunning views of the Beas River and surrounding snow-clad peaks. It serves as a picturesque photo stop offering panoramic landscapes.

Gulaba:
Gulaba, situated on the Leh-Manali Highway, is known for its lush green meadows and mesmerizing mountain scenery. It's a popular snow point during winter when Rohtang is closed, offering snow activities and adventure fun.

Rahla Waterfall:
Rahla Waterfall is one of the most beautiful natural waterfalls near Manali, cascading from a height of around 2,500 meters. Surrounded by deodar trees and snow peaks, it is a serene spot for photography and relaxation.

Vyas Nala and Marhi:
Vyas Nala and Marhi are famous for their breathtaking roadside beauty, small eateries, and snow viewpoints. These stops provide an excellent chance to enjoy snacks amidst the enchanting Himalayan backdrop.

Rohtang Valley and Zero Point Rohtang:
Rohtang Valley, located at an altitude of 13,050 feet, is one of the most visited destinations near Manali. It is famous for its majestic snow-covered mountains, adventure sports like skiing and snow scootering, and panoramic views of the Pir Panjal Range. Zero Point Rohtang marks the highest accessible area where travelers can experience real snow even in early summer.

Atal Tunnel:
Atal Tunnel, the engineering marvel named after former Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee, is the world's longest highway tunnel above 10,000 feet. It connects Manali with Lahaul Valley and remains open throughout the year, offering a thrilling drive experience through the mountains.

Solang Valley:
Solang Valley, located between Manali and Rohtang, is known for adventure sports like paragliding, zorbing, skiing, and snowboarding. Surrounded by towering peaks and glaciers, it's one of the best places for both adventure lovers and nature enthusiasts.

Koksar:
Koksar is the first village in the Lahaul Valley after crossing the Atal Tunnel. It offers a blend of cultural charm and scenic Himalayan landscapes. Visitors can
